

Aloha USA

NEW YORK

TABS ON TRAVEL
TODAY

Mon 01 Oct 17 p4

More Kiwis Take A Bite Of The Big Apple

New York City needs no introduction. Famed for its iconic skyline, museums, theatre and sass, the City That Never Sleeps is capturing the attention of a growing number of Kiwis as they look to travel beyond the western US gateways.

A bucket list item for many travellers, there's always something to see or do in New York, the real art is narrowing it down. In summer visitors can

Dining Out

There's so many NYC dining options it can be overwhelming. HA's Rusty Williss says clients looking for a good coffee should head to Frisson Espresso Coffee. There's stores in Hell's Kitchen (326 W 47th St), and at East Village (between E9th and E10th Sts). Rao's Italian offers a quintessential New York-Italian style experience but Williss says clients will have to book well in advance, as 'it's that popular'. And for the Big Apple's best Kiwi style pies try DUB Pies! There's a Brooklyn shop, as well as a food truck (check Facebook for the truck location).

choose from a plethora of festivals, outdoor concerts or movies and events on across the city's five boroughs. Through the winter NYC comes alive and its iconic holiday season spectacular is a must-see.

Extra Comfort

The HNL to JFK sector is the longest domestic sector in the world, at 11+hours.

Urge clients to upgrade to HA's Extra Comfort product for an extra $200pp each way. On this particular sector the extra legroom is welcomed. As it is a domestic sector HA asks agents to remind clients to bring their complimentary headsets from their AKL sector to use on the NYC flights.

NYC Like A Local

For those looking for a local NYC experience, every Sun Apr-Oct Brooklyn Neighborhood Dumbo hosts the Brooklyn Flea Market. The market is popular with New Yorkers and offers antiques, collectables, clothes and jewellery created by local artisans and designers and more. See brooklynflea.com

The City Sights

A walk through Central Park is a must-do when in New York, and is stunning in any of the seasons, says Williss. Along with the many incredible museums in the city, the National September 11 Memorial and Museum is a sobering and ultimately touching experience. Clients should allow around two hours, and it's best to go earlier in the day to avoid queues. Taking in a Broadway show is another must-do. There's a huge range of shows on, including Rocktopia, which opens 20 Mar. See newyorkcitytheatre.com

Bowie At Brooklyn

The Brooklyn Museum is featuring an exhibit on David Bowie through to 15 Jul advises NYC & Company. The Bowie Is exhibition features the singer's costumes, handwritten lyric sheets, original album art, photographs and videos. See brooklynmuseum.org/exhibitions/davidbowieis

Spy Museum

A one-of-a-kind spy museum has opened in mid-town Manhattan. Spyscape, located two blocks from MoMA, features artefacts and technology as well as stories of famous and infamous spies and hackers. Clients can test their spy skills out with code breaking, criminal profiling, hacking and more with interactive exhibits across seven exhibitions. See spyscape.com

Breakfast At Tiffany's

Movie fans can finally have 'Breakfast at Tiffany's', or even lunch, with the opening of The Blue Box Café at Tiffany & Co's flagship Fifth Ave store. The café, located on the fourth floor is open for breakfast, lunch and afternoon tea. The café, of course, features Tiffany blue walls, couches, table clothes and China and offers diners views over the city's iconic Central Park.

Getting There

From 21 Mar, HA will offer five flights a week northbound to NYC's JFK airport via HNL. Clients can fly on HA 446 ex AKL 2355 Wed-Sun, connecting to domestic flight (HA 50) arriving NYC at 0655 the next day. "This means travellers have a full day up their sleeve with which to get the body clocks set to local time before a good night's sleep," says HA. A HNL stopover is said to be popular with southbound Kiwis.

HA offers JFK open jaw options from HA's 11 west coast mainland cities. Clients can connection with HA's partner carrier JetBlue (which offers a wide range destinations from its JFK hub to other west coast US points) then fly HA back to Hawaii and AKL.

On The Run

NYC has more than 600 LinkNYC kiosks offering free high-speed internet, phone calls, and device charging. All 279 NYC underground subway stations have free wifi and full cellular coverage.

Aloha New York City

AKL to HNL to NYC HA now flying up to 5 X a week AKL to NYC via Honolulu

From $799* one-way

$799*

* Book G class. Sales till 12 March
See your GDS for details.

HAWAIIAN AIRLINES.