

Australia on screen

There's nothing like Australia

Along with the rest of New Zealand, Judy took a break this Saturday night for the Coronation Street special but will return to our screens this Saturday 21 July for the final episode in the series 'Judy Bailey's Australia.' The sun will set on this series in the Top End as Judy marvels at the incredible contrasts of this great continent from atop an escarpment in Kakadu National Park.

The final episode also calls in to Lady Elliot Island on the Southern Great Barrier Reef where Judy arrives just in time for a truly special 'moment in nature.' The series has already inspired many New Zealanders to experience for themselves some of the extraordinary places that Judy has visited on her epic journey.

If you have missed an episode you can click onto tvnzondemand.co.nz to catch up or to share some truly inspiring Australian experiences with your clients connect with australia.com/judybaileysaustralia. Short video vignettes of each episode are also available for viewing at YouTube – keyword search Judy Bailey's Australia. We will be back next week with the final of 'Australia on Screen'

