Australia on screen

THERE'S NOTHING LIKE AUSTRALIA

EPISODE ONE: South Australia Adelaide And The Barossa

Kiwi Chef and Personality Al Brown began his epic culinary tour of Australia on Saturday, showcasing the diverse country and all it has to offer with a new prime time TV series on TV One. Follow in Al's footsteps and plan the ultimate foodies trip for your clients at australia.com/AlBrown

Produce Central

In the first episode, Al travelled to South Australia to take in the sights and sample the best the region has to offer. In Adelaide he headed straight for the not to-be-missed Adelaide Central Market adelaidecentralmarket.com.au to gather a bounty of the freshest local produce from around the region.

Maggie's Kitchen

For food lovers like Al no trip to the Barossa is complete without meeting Australian icon Maggie Beer. Renowned for her generosity in sharing her tips as to what makes the home kitchen a success. maggiebeer.com.au

For clients keen to follow in the footsteps of Al's culinary journey, and to find out more visit Australia.com/AlBrown or catch up on an episode at tvnzondemand.co.nz

Feast On The Murray

Al completes his culinary journey of the region with a sumptuous feast of the regions best aboard an aptly named 'Unforgettable Houseboat.' unforgettablehouseboats.com.au

Bounty Of The Barossa

Just an hours drive north east of Adelaide, Al made the majestic drive through the vines to the Barossa, an area with a rich heritage, natural beauty, and renowned for producing stunning wine and produce. southaustralia.co.nz/region/barossa It's the perfect place to pick up some local meats and cheese and a bold Barossa red, find a shady spot and enjoy a gourmet picnic.
