Western Australia's North West

Riches Of The North West

This week the sun sets on Al Brown's culinary journey of Australia and he's saved one of the most impressive landscapes for last. Al heads west into the upper reaches of Western Australia, landing in Broome and then heading further into The Kimberly where he finds the culinary, cultural and natural spoils are as rich as they are spectacular.

Spectacle Of The Kimberly

Heading north from Broome, Al gets on board with Horizontal Falls Seaplane Adventures for the trip of a lifetime with one of the Kimberley's most experienced family owned specialists. Direct daily flights from Broome and Derby explore the stunning Buccaneer Archipelago and are an excellent way to see the incredible tidal power of the Horizontal waterfalls from the comfort of a luxury jet seaplane. Highly experienced skippers take guests right into this pristine wilderness area giving a close up view of one of Australia's most striking natural landscapes. horizontalfallsadventures.com.au

Broome – The Pearl In The Western Crown

Pinctada Cable Beach Resort & Spa is Broome's newest full service boutique resort and day spa in Cable Beach. The resort has a boutique feel with rooms nestled around a stunning pool and garden, and world class Pinctada Spa offers both couple and individual treatment rooms. pinctadacablebeach.com.au. From here, Al meets up with Marilynne Paspaley of the Paspaley pearl dynasty and learns that these very special oysters yield not just the uber precious Paspaley pearl but the 'muscle' which is the meat and a highly prized culinary delicacy. Al revels in the tales of old and what better place to soak up these stories than aboard an old pearl lugger.
