

EPISODE THREE:

Northern Territory: Darwin & Katherine

Kiwi Chef and Personality Al Brown continued his epic culinary tour of Australia with a trip to Australia's 'Top End'.

In the Northern Territory, Al showcases the vibrant riverside city of Darwin and then heads further into the territory ending up in Katherine. Here he learns how to cook one of the region's most prized delicacies with renowned indigenous chef, Mark Olive.

Where the Barra are Biting

While in the area, Al can't resist trying to reel in one of the Barramundi the region is renowned for. Whether your client is a beginner or a professional Darwin Barra & Crab will provide them with an incredible fishing and crabbing adventure in Darwin and the Top End. darwinbarraandcrab.com

Flavours of Darwin

Al starts his journey in Darwin. After a short time acclimatising to the tropical heat, Al makes his way to the iconic Mindil Beach Night markets in Darwin to pick up a curry and enjoy the view at the nearby beach. The market is home to a melting pot of stunning cuisine and culture, making for an excellent introduction to the region. mindil.com.au

Crocodile Smiles

Crocodylus Park is one of the best places in Australia to get up close and personal with the largest reptiles on the planet! Built upon 30 years of experience in crocodile research and conservation, Crocodylus Park plays host to over a thousand crocodiles from 30 cm long hatchlings to massive adults measuring over 4.8 m and weighing more than half a ton! crocodyluspark.com.au

For clients keen to follow in the footsteps of Al's culinary journey, find out more visit Australia.com/albrown. Missed an episode? Catch up at tvnzondemand.co.nz key search word Dishing up Australia with Al Brown

Follow in Al's Footsteps

For those with an appetite for a culinary adventure, follow in Al's footsteps to the Top End and Katherine. A three hour drive from Darwin and hem to the world renowned Cicada Lodge, an authentic indigenous experience set amidst one of the most spectacular landscapes in the world. Here Al immerses himself in the ancient splendour of the Katherine Gorge and back at Cicada Lodge, meets up with celebrated indigenous chef Mark Olive. Mark shares the traditional art of cooking up a prized fillet of Crocodile tail. A once in a lifetime experience! cicalodge.com.au