THERE'S NOTHING LIKE AUSTRALIA

EPISODE EIGHT

SYDNEY AND NSW SOUTH COAST

It's one of our most visited cities, but Kiwis just can't get enough of the incredible Sydney for its culture, food, shopping and entertainment.

For clients keen to follow in the footsteps of Al's culinary journey, find out more visit Australia.com/albrown

All This And So Close To Sydney

Just two and a half hours from Sydney, Al grabs a rental car and hits the road for Jervis Bay, an area that's becoming increasingly popular for its abundance of fine food and beautiful beaches, and also home to more and more of Sydney's top chefs who are moving there to be closer to the source of the incredible produce.

Sydney On The Water

In Al Browns Dishing Up Australia, the Celebrity Chef hits the streets for some delectable street food before heading for the holy grail of oyster eating in Sydney, The Boathouse. The internally acclaimed restaurant has a reputation for serving the finest Australian Seafood and is home to Sydney's best array of oysters, freshly shucked to order.
